ANNEXURE TO THE ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR

 - (iv) Shri Karma Sonam Lepcha
 - (v) Shri Ugen Nedup Bhutia
 - (vi) Shri Shyam Pradhan

(xiv) Shri Bikram Pradhan

2. The Commission gave its opinion in respect of the Hon'ble Members of the Legislative Assembly whose names have been mentioned under the heads – 'A', 'B' and 'C' above on 18.04.2018. However, the Commission did not give any opinion in respect of the head 'D', i.e. Shri Bikram Pradhan, due to non-availability of complete information at the time. The Commission vide letter dated 13.06.2018 sought the reply of Shri Bikram Pradhan in this matter.
3. Shri Bikram Pradhan MLA, in response to the Commission's letter dated 13.06.2018 has filed his reply on 21.06.2018. The respondent has brought to the attention of this Commission the Sikkim Legislative Assembly (Removal of Disqualification) Amendment Act, 1996 vide which clause 3 (aa) was added to the Sikkim Legislative Assembly (Removal of Disqualification) Act, 1978 which provides for adding "the Office of the Government Chief Whip" to the list of exempted offices. He has also placed reliance on Opinion dated 08.02.2007 given by this Commission in Reference Case No. 53 (G) of 2006 wherein this Commission had held the office of Government Chief Whip in the State of Sikkim to be an exempted office.
4. The Commission has perused the said Opinion dated 08.02.2007 given by this Commission in Reference Case No. 53 (G) of 2006 as well as the Sikkim Legislative Assembly (Removal of Disqualification) Amendment Act, 1996 vide which clause 3 (aa) was added to the Sikkim Legislative Assembly (Removal of Disqualification) Act, 1978 which provides exemption from any disqualification arising out of holding an Office of Profit for "the Office of the Government Chief Whip".

CONCLUSION

5. In view of the above, this Commission hereby opines that the office of Government Chief Whip falls under exempted category and the disqualification, if any, attracted by holding the said office stands removed by the operation of the said amended Act of 1978 and therefore, Shri Bikram Pradhan is not disqualified for holding Office of Profit.
